National Anti Ragging Week: 12th - 18th August 2025

Anti-Ragging Week

Anti-Ragging Week is observed every year from 12th-18th August to promote a safe and respectful educational environment for all students. Ragging is a severe offense that can have lasting effects on a student's mental and physical well-being. To raise awareness and emphasize the importance of preventing ragging, our University's Anti-Ragging Cell is organizing a Logo Making Competition and a Slogan Competition. We encourage all students to participate and express their creativity in support of this cause.

Join the Logo and Slogan Competitions

The Anti-Ragging Cell of Gurucharan University is organizing a Logo Making Competition and a Slogan Competition to mark Anti-Ragging Week from 12th-18th August. These competitions are an opportunity for students to contribute to the cause by designing a logo that represents anti-ragging principles or by creating a powerful slogan that captures the spirit of anti-ragging.
